YRC Worldwide Ranks Number One in its Industry for the Sixth Consecutive Year on the FORTUNE Magazine Annual List of America's Most Admired Companies; Ranks #1 in All Eight Attributes of Reputation

OVERLAND PARK, Kan., March 3 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- For the sixth consecutive year YRC Worldwide (Nasdaq: YRCW), one of the largest transportation service providers in the world, has been ranked Number One in its industry on the FORTUNE Magazine annual list of America's Most Admired Companies. In addition, YRC Worldwide ranked number one in all eight categories, an exceptional recognition achieved by only 13 other companies. The reputation attributes are: Innovation, People management, Use of corporate assets, Social responsibility, Quality of management, Financial soundness, Long-term investment, and Quality of products/services.

"We are honored to receive this prestigious recognition for the sixth year in a row," said Bill Zollars, chairman, president and CEO, YRC Worldwide. "We are especially excited to have ranked number one in all eight attributes of reputation categories, an achievement that validates our position as an industry leader and our ongoing commitment to our customers."

Zollars added, "This announcement comes at an opportune time, coinciding with the new five-year labor contract we have in place that will lay the foundation for new services and superior performance. Internationally, our global network is making significant progress in Europe, Asia and Latin America."

FORTUNE's annual list of America's Most Admired Companies will appear in the March 17, 2008 issue, on newsstands March 10th. To create the industry lists, FORTUNE and its survey partner, Hay Group, asked executives, directors, and analysts to rate companies in their own industry on eight criteria, from investment value to social responsibility. A total of 622 companies in 65 industries were surveyed.
